Best Bout at Garden Show Is One in Which Williams Stops Kelly in Ninth Round.

Copyright, 1912, by The Press Publishing Co.

THE best bout of the evening was a lightning fast ten round affair between Kelly Williams of Baltimore and Kid Kelly of New Orleans. Kelly came here a few days ago and announced that if he was given a match with Williams and failed to stop him he'd walk home to New Orleans on the time. I'm afraid Kelly will have to walk, for Williams had him so helpless in the ninth round that Referee Billy Job, with excellent judgment, stepped in and stopped the bout. Kelly, who was game, protested. He was given a great cheer by the crowd as he left the ring.

Pekky did some very fair fighting, but poor Williams, outwitted by endless punches over the heart, and afraid to lead and leave openings, could only stall and stall to stick it out. When the fight was over Joe Humphreys, who is something of a comedian, climbed into the ring and announced: "Gentlemen, John P. Dunn has rematched Kelly Williams and Kelly again next week twenty rounds before the photograph at Harren Island."

Giants $10,000 Pitcher Clever Cartoonist, Too

Demaree is a Wonder if He May Be Judged by Figures.

WHILE it is generally known that Al Demaree, the Mobile pitcher recently bought by the Giants for $10,000 and two players, was a wonderful twirler, very few are aware of the fact that he is a really good cartoonist. His main desire in coming to New York is to be in position to follow his profession as an artist. Demaree did some very clever work as a cartoonist in Chicago, and while in the Southern league he has sold many pictures to the newspapers of that section.

Gibson Wants to Match Less Willard and Palzer

Western Cow-Puncher Feels Confident That He Can Whip Local White Hope.

BY JOHN POLLOCK.

A MATCH between prominent heavyweights which Billy Gibson will make a strenuous effort to clinch will be that between Al Palzer, the local white hope, and Jess Willard, the champion from the West, who recently made a great impression with the fight fans here by the wonderful battle he put up against Luther McCarty in a ten-round bout at Madison Square Garden. After the show at the Garden last night Willard called Gibson aside and said: "I wish you would match me with that fellow Palzer, as I am sure I can beat him." Gibson told Willard that he would do all in his power to get Palzer for him, and will see both Palzer and Tom O'Rourke in a few days to try to get them to consent to the match.

WEST SIDE PARK, CHICAGO, AUG. 27.—It was the final game of the season between the East and the West this afternoon at the West Side Park. The Highlanders faced the Cubs for the final game of the series and it was the last time the local fans had a chance to see the Brooklyn men until next year.

AMERICAN LEAGUE PARK, AUG. 27.—By heavy hitting at opportune moments the Highlanders won the opening game of the double-header from the Naps by a score of 8 to 4. In their efforts to stave off defeat the Naps used two pitchers, but the Highlanders found Kaier just as easy as basketball and kept right on their way. McConnell pitched a steady game throughout and was never in danger. New York really won the game in the third inning when McConnell and McMahon singled and Chase sent them home with a long threebagger. Hal scored a moment later on a single by Paddock. Singles by Simmons, Sweeney and McMahon and a base on balls gave them two more in the fourth. Three more were added in the ninth, but were not needed.

CHANCE AND HIS MEN ARE MORE IN EARNST THAN THEY HAVE EVER BEEN about overhauling the Giants and there was a decided improvement in their preliminary practice today. The peerless leader is going to use the whip on his men from now on in order to drive them a little closer to the top if the Cubs slip any more.

LEACH MADE A HOME RUN INTO LEFT FIELD, Sailer walked, Evers beat out a bunt, Sailer going to second. Archer singled to second. Cheney forced Evers, Yingling to Smith. Schuetz walked, hitting to Smith. Schuetz struck out. Tinker also batted. TWO RUNS.

GIANTS PLAY THEIR LAST WESTERN GAME OF SEASON TO-DAY

New York Bent on Getting Even With Reds for Yesterday's Defeat.

REDFORD PARK, CINCINNATI, Aug. 27.—The Giants and the Reds met here this afternoon for the last game of the season between the two teams at this place. It is also the last Western game of the season for the Champions and they are going to do their best to end their Western invasion, as they began it with victory. The first game the Giants played this year in this section was against the Cardinals and it resulted in a win for them.

The New Yorkers feel confident that they will defeat the Reds to-day and thereby get even for yesterday's whipping. The Gotham players have only been beaten three times this season by the O'Dayites and all three losses took place in this city. Manager McGraw and his hirelings figure that the Reds have beaten them as often as they are going to this season and are sure that they'll capture to-day's game and the three in New York later. First inning—McGraw tossed Snodgrass's easy route to Hobbs. Doyle walked. Grant made a good running catch of Becker's fly to short left. Doyle was caught napping, but reached second when Hobbs' drive to the head with the ball. Grant threw Murray's grounder to Hobbs. NO RUNS. Katty made a one hand stop of Becker's hot shot and tossed to Merkle. Herzog made a quick assist to Merkle with Marzan's slow pounder. Hobbs hammered to deep right centre for three bases. Mitchell beat out a slow roller to Herzog and took two on Herzog's low throw to first. Hobbs scoring. A wild pitch put Mitchell on third. Philian snatched a fly for the second. Grant struck out. ONE RUN.
